CALL FOR PAPER

Abstract Submission Deadline: July 7, 2013

INTRODUCTION

Kill two birds with one stone by submitting your abstract now.

The e-Learning Korea 2013: Conference will consist of the most advanced, up-to-date, information regarding the field of e-Learning. Domestic and international exhibitors will be on hand to provide a diverse range of educational backgrounds and offer a unique networking opportunity for participants. The conference will be held at Coex in Seoul, Korea. Since its inception in 2006, the e-Learning Korea Conference has grown to be a world-class event in the e-Learning industry. This year's conference takes place under the theme of 'Click! Open a Creative World with e-Learning'

The conference will provide participants with an opportunity to share the latest educational information, policies, technology, research and trends from the e-Learning field. Participants will have a rare opportunity to make a deep impact and create long-lasting connections with some of the most leading and influential e-Learning experts, researchers and professionals in new media.

Distinguished researchers are invited to submit abstracts in line with the conference theme and topics. A Best Paper Award will be given out with a total cash prize of $2,400. One participant will be awarded gold, two will be awarded silver and two participants will be awarded bronze. The Awards Ceremony will take place on Wednesday, September 4, after Session. For additional information, or to submit abstracts, please visit our official website at www.elearningkorea.org
